Brian,

I know things have been pretty fucking shitty between us lately and I have done a horrible thing by being with Dave and filing for a divorce. I cant say Im sorry enough or ever expect you to forgive me. I have been under alot of fucking stress and cant even deal with it any more between Dennis, the bills the kids, you being in jail and Logan most of all. The weight loss, the hair loss just not feeling good its killing me. I tried making an appointment with Scott had one but he got caught up in trial. I recieved a summons that was served here for you from Americredit for the 2001 Dodge Intrepid that got repoed you are to appear in court (Haverhill District) I brought in to Scotts office so he can take care of it. I told the lady I forget her name the short one with the weird voice to have Scott call me. My Doctor has me on prozac and Xanax I swear Im going fucking crazy. They still dont seem to work only make me more tired. Logan all he has been doing is crying he has been waking up at 4 am. I don't even dare make an appointment with Dr. Torres how will I fucking get there. Brian I need a break from him I love him to pieces and loving him dearly but I'm so stressed when he would wake up that early you would change him give him breakfast even if it made you late for work. you would come home from work and take right over no matter what. Colton gives me shit when I ask him to feed him dinner for me while I cook for us. "Why can't Dalton do it" I get every time. I know it's not Colton's job but he knows more than Dalton when it comes down to it if Logan is choking etc.... John is a fucking piece of shit I hate him I can't take him any more let's see let's not go to work for 3 days in a row because I went to the bar and can't get up for work than I have no money to pay board but drink the last of the milk.

so the kids dont have any for morning or Logan dont have any for his cream o wheat or oatmeal. Brian its the worst feeling in the world not to be able to go by a gallon of milk cause you have no money. When you tried calling the other day it would not let the call through because the phone bill is 600.00 dollars they shut off the long distance and blocked collect calls. I heard you say Brian and started crying my eyes out. Off and the fucking living no matter what I do it smells like john its fucking gross. Im ready to have Rent a center come get the living room set because for one I cant afford it too it smells like B.O. cause he wont put a sheet down when he sleeps its gross I cant even stand to walk through the living room. I live in the bedroom. Saturday the cable guy came and shut the cable off because of Dennis he has not paid the cable for this apartment since 2004.

and it was left in my name So now I have to pay a stupid cable bill and had to put it in Coltons name that mother fucker I hate him. I hate every body right now. what ever happened with the capitol one thing did you write to them or have Scott take case of it. Brian I cant pay it or go to jail then our kids will have nobody. I just dont know what to do anymore. All the credit card companies are coming after me because my name was on them and most of the charges where made from me for us. Im going to try to get the Block taken off the phone so you can call. well I just got off the phone with verizon and they are gonna take the Block off it will take 24-48 hours but I have to call another number to let them know I will receive calls and because the bill is so high Im only gonna get a $50.00 spending limit. The Collect call Company said you will be able to call on Monday or Tuesday well you will probably not get this letter until mon - Tues. So Monday I will call to make sure they took it off. So lets plan for you to call at 4:00pm I will make sure I'm here hey but where am I going any ways no where. My hand is killing me the computer is out of Ink and the boys has very little and there to lazy to write by hand so I'll save that for them to write again 3 days in a row I have yelled at them to write back they are going to do it today. They have made some new friends kinda worried they are like 13-14 yrs old but seem to be good kids atleast there white not the little p.r. punks down the street.

Dalton has been skating boarding with them and going to the library with them. But Cotton stays inside on the damn Computer he says its to hot to go out, they gave up on camp said it was boring. I dont know what to do with them anymore. Dalton had only one staple but it was right in the middle of the gash. I thought he needed more beacuse of how big it was it was like an inch long and half inch

"EXHIBIT D"

deep it was so gross. I almost threw up every time I cleaned it.
 He had his staple taken out on Friday then he went back on the damn thing that same day as he got the staple out after I said to stay off the frampoline and he sprained his ankle. I'm gonna kill him he does not listen and has no fear. Two days ago he wiped out on the skateboard and split open his elbow people are gonna think I beat him, but that's Dalton for ya No Fear what so ever. OK so now I'm the one writing the novel I guess I'm just scared to finish this letter and answer your question, scared of your reaction to what I'm going to say but hopefully you will bear with it. Brian I love you with all of my heart and I see nothing or anyone will ever change that and know we should be together forever. You are the other half of me you make me whole. You complete me. right ^{now} I'm so broken, messed up, confused, stressed a heart left. But I do know I Love you and miss you more and more each day. I'm still with Dave he has moved in and is giving me 100.00 bucks a week board. This relationship is nothing more than him giving me money to try to pay the bills. I don't Love him like I Love you Brian. I just keep saying to my self this will be over soon over and over again. I just keep thinking to myself what you had said when you first went to prison. That if I have do this kinda thing to do it. I said I would not do it, But look at how bad things have gotten. I can't even buy a gallon of milk on my own. atleast his money is helping and he is ok with the kids I talk to the boys all the time to make sure they ok and tell them things will be better soon. I ask them if they ok with Dave and at any second they not ok he will be gone. Try to have faith in me Brian I'm trying my best for these boys. How is the house classes going? Are they still on is that still in place? "EXHIBIT D"

I think the best game plan at this point is for you to get out of there. Do you know where you are gonna stay when you get out? You know it would not be good to come hear because of Dennis.

I was thinking you should stay with Nana for awhile and get back to work and then we can save to get out of here and there and start over. I can't save any money never mind come up with first, last and security. Even if I still have to play this game with Dave when you get out so we can save. I hope you don't hate me or even think I'm full of shit it's gonna take some major thinking and planning to get out of this.

I know this sucks but we need to be careful with letters and phone calls because of Dave living here. I feel like I'm having an affair with my own husband. As far as Logan of course he will stay with me when you get out so you can make the money to get us out of here. The divorce has to be thrown. I'm turning to get some Rental assistance and Schooling for me and Daycare for Logan, so I can go to school part time and work part time under the table. Remember Child Care Circuit? they have Special Vouchers for handicapped kids so he will get a one on one teacher at a daycare, but because I'm not on welfare it's been real tough to get it go figure I don't sit home on my ASS watching Jerry Springer and collect welfare so I can't get a voucher. I want to go to school and work but "can't" you know that. So Brian please have faith in me know I love you and only you and Dave means nothing. we ~~are~~ or I have to play this smart so he stays and helps out for awhile. OK yes we both have to do this for us it's the only way right now. It may be me + Dave together for awhile but my heart belongs to you always. And we will be together soon. Dave gets out of work at 4 but has an hour drive home so he don't get here till 5pm thats why I said call at 4pm or earlier if you can. I get the mail most of the time so be careful what you write the last letter I went down stairs to Richies and read it. So keep the letters about the boys coming we can talk about all this on the phone when you call, so we can continue to write about the kids and how things are around here. Any thing about ^{us} we can talk about on the phone or address it to Richie and tell him to give it to me when Dave is not around. I hope you can believe in us again and we can do this Brian. I get the mail like clock work during the week so you can write back to me about this at the begining of the week so it dont come on the weekend or maybe if you write on the weekend it gets here Tues or wed.

I LOVE YOU!
Love Crystal
